Carter Chau

Manhattan, N.Y. | carterchau2028@u.northwestern.edu | 646-236-3700

EDUCATION

Northwestern University, Medill School of Journalism, Evanston, Ill.
B.S. in Journalism*, *Double Major in Political Science, Integrated Marketing Communications Certificate June 2028
GPA: 3.84/4.00 | Dean's List: 5/6 quarters
Coursework: Media Law and Ethics; Fundamentals of Reporting & Writing; American Government and Politics; Introduction to Law in the Political Arena; Political Data Visualization; Marketing Consumer Insights; Journalism in Practice: Video Reporting

JOURNALISM EXPERIENCE

Medill News Service, Washington D.C. January - March 2027
Incoming Business Reporter

Northwestern Business Review, Evanston, Ill. April 2025 - present
Life & Culture Section Editor January 2026 - present
- Edit weekly articles pertaining to business trends within social and cultural life for audience of Evanston and Chicago-area readers, ensuring clarity, brevity, adherence to AP Style, and consistency with the publication's editorial voice

Staff Writer April 2025 - January 2026
- Authored analyses of business trends, government actions, and financial developments for undergraduate audiences

nuAZN, Evanston, Ill. May 2026 - present
Worldwide Section Editor
- Develop and edit four longform features per academic quarter for an Asian American student print magazine, including reported stories, personal essays, and in-depth profiles that amplify underrepresented voices and perspectives across campus

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE

Robin Hood Foundation, New York City June - August 2026
Communications Intern
- Collaborated with the Deputy Director of Communications to shape organizational messaging, conduct research, and develop briefing materials, press releases, and social media content on NYC rent freezes and free public early childhood education.
- Led media outreach and managed public relations with journalists, securing coverage in major national outlets, including The New York Times, while monitoring press coverage to inform strategic communications efforts

The Community Equity Initiative at New York University School of Law, New York City June - August 2026
Research Assistant
- Conducted historical and policy research on the construction of Nashville's I-40 corridor, examining infrastructure inequities and their economic, cultural, health, and educational impacts on surrounding communities
- Synthesized archival records, government reports, legal documents, academic research, and news coverage to trace conditions before and after I-40's construction and contextualize data on the long-term effects of public policy decisions

Northwestern University Knight Lab, Evanston, Ill. January 2026 - April 2026
Student Researcher
- Synthesized datasets from 45+ participants across six countries, drawing on records from 2020, 2023, and 2025, to examine the involvement of artificial intelligence in post-pandemic news consumption behaviors and patterns

Kellogg School of Management, Evanston, Ill. September 2025 - January 2026
Undergraduate Research Assistant
- Charted 500 qualitative and quantitative digital diaries using Excel spreadsheets to support research on education inequality and labor force readiness in underrepresented communities while maintaining confidentiality amongst all participants

SKILLS

Cantonese (conversational) | New York State Seal of Biliteracy in Spanish | Adobe Creative Suite, Excel, R, rStudio, Microsoft Office